Steps to Receive Financial Aid

1) Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online:
   www.fafsa.gov

2) Complete the application for your study abroad program.

3) Apply for additional study abroad scholarships!

4) View your revised financial aid award on AccessPlus. Your financial aid award will be automatically adjusted to reflect the costs of your program. You will receive an email once this process is complete.

Study Abroad Scholarships

Scholarships are available to help pay for your study abroad experience. Please visit the Study Abroad Center website for more information about scholarship opportunities!

www.studyabroad.iastate.edu/home/students/outgoing (under “Scholarships”)

Exceptions May Apply

1) Students must receive academic credit for their study abroad program and must transfer those credits back to Iowa State University to receive financial aid.

2) Financial aid awarded to you during a regular semester at Iowa State University may be used for a study abroad program, with the exception of Work-Study and some merit-based scholarships. Please confirm your eligibility for merit-based awards with your scholarship provider.

Helpful Tips Before You Go

Direct Deposit on AccessPlus

Financial aid you authorized on AccessPlus is applied to your U-bill. Designating a direct deposit account allows us to deposit any excess funds into the bank account of your choice.

ATM/Debit Card

Inform your bank that you will be studying abroad and confirm your ATM/Debit card can be used in that country.

Email Account

Continue to check your ISU email while studying abroad.
