NATIONAL COMPETITIVE AWARDS

Iowa State University provides high-achieving undergraduate and graduate students with information and guidance on preparing for competitive, national and international level fellowship and scholarship opportunities. This includes - but is not limited to - funding for undergraduate and graduate study, study abroad, and internships. These awards are primarily merit-based, and successful candidates typically exhibit outstanding academic, leadership, and service experience.

STUDY ABROAD CENTER SCHOLARSHIPS

These scholarships can be found in ISU Abroad or on the CAL S Study Abroad website.

WALTZ AFFORDABILITY SCHOLARSHIP

The goal of the scholarship is to assist with additional expense of studying abroad (if applicable) versus staying in Ames. Awards will partially be based on the applicant choosing a study abroad location that supports a good academic plan, developing a reasonable financial plan and demonstrating that this scholarship is required to enable them to study abroad.

LEWIS SCHOLARSHIP FOR HONORS

This scholarship is for students participating in an exchange or semester-long program. Students must also be a member of the University Honors Program.

LEW KLINGE STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIP

The Lew Klinge Study Abroad Scholarship is open to students who have demonstrated leadership and involvement in promoting and participating in the activities of the Center for LGBTQIA+ Student Success and LGBTQIA+ Community at Iowa State University, who are also pursuing an Iowa State University study abroad experience.

SALLY PARROTT GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY

This scholarship is intended for in-state students participating in a study abroad program at least 4 weeks in length. Preference will be given to students who are first generation college students and show financial need.

INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Listed are some of the more commonly known nationally competitive scholarships and fellowships. All of the opportunities involve international travel.
